SHEEP WITHOUT A SHEPHERD by Dan Jenkins

By and large, Americans know so little about sheep, yet the Bible is filled with references to shepherds and their flocks. My nearly ten years of living in New Zealand allowed me to be around them. When I went to New Zealand, there were three million people living in that beautiful land and there were eighty million sheep! I remember driving to conduct a Bible study at a residence on one of the large sheep farms (in New Zealand they were called sheep stations), and found the road blocked by a vast flock of sheep. Some of the stations in New Zealand had flocks that had over 15,000 sheep on them. There were not this many on the one where we were headed to teach the gospel, but it did not take us long to discover how “dumb” sheep are. There was no leader among them as we attempted to drive through them, so they aimlessly meandered around but never moved off the road to give us a path. Sheep will follow a shepherd and his dogs, but they are hopeless without a leader.

In Mark chapter six, Jesus saw a similar disarray, but it was not with sheep. “And Jesus, when He came out, saw a great multitude and was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep not having a shepherd. So He began to teach them many things” (Mark 6:34). Neither sheep nor people do well without a shepherd. They are hopelessly lost without someone to guide them.

There were shepherds in the Old Testament who needed to care for God’s flock (Israel). The problem was that they received the honor of being shepherds, but they never actually did the work of a shepherd. “You eat the fat and clothe yourselves with wool, you slaughter the fatlings, but you do not feed the flock. The weak you have not strengthened nor have you healed those who were sick, nor bound up the broken, nor brought back what was driven away, nor sought when was lost, but with force and cruelty you have ruled them, so they were scattered because there was no shepherd” (Ezek. 34:2-4). God looked down and saw exactly what Jesus saw in Mark six. His sheep, His people were scattered because there were no shepherds

What better illustration could there be about the importance of the work of elders in the church today? What a joy it is to see shepherds in our day who truly care for the sheep. They not only care for the ninety-nine sheep who are doing well, but they especially focus their attention on that one sheep who has wandered away. Without shepherds, Christians struggle, for we need godly men to lead us. Thank God for those men who have hearts of compassion for those of us who are part of His flock!

MARRIAGE IS HONORABLE—IF IT IS SCRIPTURAL

By Jonnie Hutchison

Hebrews 13:4 reads, “Marriage is honorable among all, and the bed undefiled; but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.”

The only situation in which marriage is considered to be truly honorable and the sexual relationship acceptable is when fornication and adultery are not involved in that relationship. God does not sanction sin and thus will not sanction an adulterous marriage. Adultery and fornication are “works of the flesh” and those who engage in these sins will not go to heaven (Galatians 5:19-21). An adulterous marriage is described by Jesus in Matthew 19:9, “And I say to you, whoever divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another, commits adultery; and whoever marries her who is divorced commits adultery.” The only exception which allows an innocent spouse to remarry an eligible person is if he or she has divorced his or her previous spouse because that spouse committed adultery. If there is no adultery involved, but one divorces his or her spouse for any other reason and marries another person, then the result is an adulterous and dishonorable marriage in which the bed is defiled. This relationship is sinful and those involved stand in spiritual jeopardy unless they repent. Simply going through a marriage ceremony does not change a dishonorable marriage into an honorable one.

Are “same sex” marriages honorable?

Sexual relationships between those of the same sex (homosexuality and lesbianism) are clearly condemned in the Bible as sinful. The inspired apostle Paul described such relationships as exercising “vile passions” being “against nature”, “shameful” and having a “debased mind” (Romans 1:24-28). Clearly such relationships fall under the heading of fornication which is a violation of God’s spiritual law. Going through a marriage ceremony does not change such relationships from dishonorable to honorable any more so than the adulterous relationships mentioned above.

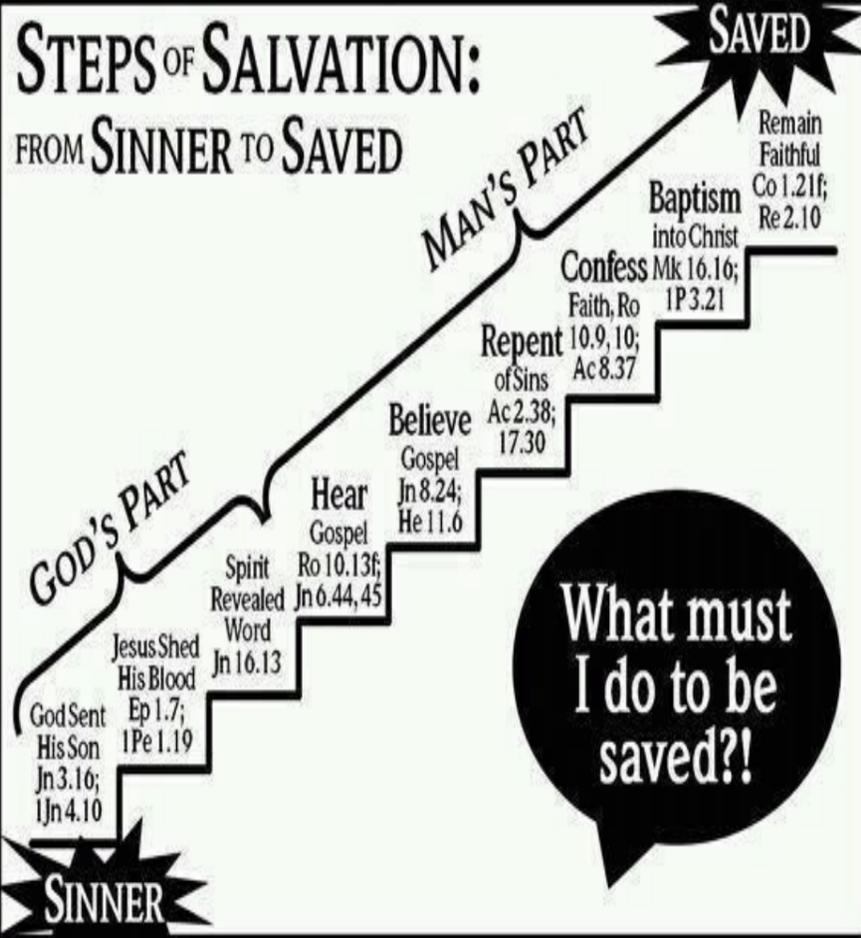

The truth is that marriage is honorable and the sexual relationship acceptable only if both parties have the scriptural right to marry. If either does not, then the marriage is not honorable nor the bed undefiled. God’s law on marriage shows just how serious and important the marriage relationship is. Please don’t take it lightly or you may regret it for an eternity.

“For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad” (2 Corinthians 5:10).
