BLESSINGS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE By Michael Stock

So many times in life, we witness needless tragedies: people turning their lives to drugs and alcohol, teenagers giving in to peer pressure, and lives that are ended far too early because of tragedy and despair. We live in a world full of darkness. In John 8: 12, Jesus tells His followers, “... I am the light of the world. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the light of life.” As Christians we have more responsibility on us than just attending the assembly on Sunday and reading our Bible. Jesus tells us in Matthew 5 we are the light of the world, and again just before He ascended to Heaven He bestowed on each and every one of us the responsibility to go and proclaim the Gospel message (Matthew 28:18-20). One of the greatest blessings of being a child of God is the ability to tell others the message of hope. Though it can be very discouraging sometimes working hard and laboring for the Kingdom only to have, in our eyes, little response, we must remember God’s ways are not our ways and God’s plans are not our plans (Isaiah 55:8-9). Even if we can only reach one person, our time was well spent. Consider the story in Acts 8. God sent one man, Philip, on a journey to teach one lost soul. In Luke 15 Jesus tells us the parable of one lost sheep. He said one lost sheep is more rejoiced over than ninety-nine who are saved. “... I say to you that likewise there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents than over ninety-nine just persons who need no repentance.” Sometimes we get so caught up in numbers that we forget the value of each and every individual person. If our souls were valuable enough for God to send His Son to lay down His life for us, is not one soul worth whatever sacrifice we must make to teach them the good news of Christ?

The truest blessing of being a Christian is the fact we are clothed with Christ (Galatians 3:27). There is nothing in this life or the next that can pull us from the love of God. In the deepest and darkest points in our life when we seem to be all alone and forsaken, we know Christ is with us. When we come to the end of our life and the certainty of death is at hand, we know, for a faithful Christian, to die is to gain. If someone asked me, “why be a Christian?” my first thought would be how can I not? Sometimes it is easy to get so caught up in all the negativity of this world that we forget the very blessings of God. God sends rain and sunshine on the righteous and the unrighteous (Matthew 5:45). We are told in James 1:17, “... Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights.” Imagine a world where everyone adopted the same philosophy of God. Of course that is not possible here on earth but a day is coming (Titus 2:13), when our great God and Savior Jesus Christ will call us home to that perfect world where there will be no more pain, no more sorrow, no more death, and no more sin. Being a Christian is not simply following a man we respect and taking His name as our own; being a Christian is much more. Being a Christian is a privilege, honor, and gift no one deserves, yet the God of the Heavens and the earth still out of His endless love and mercy bestowed the honor on us through the blood of His Son Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 15:10). Paul provided us one of the best examples of a faithful man following Christ. In 2 Timothy 4:6-8 he tells Timothy, “For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Finally, there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give to me on that Day, and not to me only but also to all who have loved His appearing.” What is the greatest blessing of being a Christian? Though we live in a world full of uncertainties as Christians, we do have the certainty God loves us and, “... To him who overcomes I will give to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the Paradise of God” (Revelation 2:7). The question is not really why be a Christian. The question is how can I not?

MY “DRUG” PROBLEM

It is not easy owning up to this. I am very reluctant to expose a problem that started in my childhood, but if confession is good for the soul, maybe I will feel better.

I cannot really say when my problem started because it seems it's always been with me. When I was less than a year old, my father walked out on my mother, leaving her with four children. Dad and his live-in-lover ate. We did not.

Maybe the poverty had something to do with it. The thing I remember is, that being poor was very inexpensive, but it had drawbacks. We could not even afford electricity. I was the only one on our block who had a kerosene stereo.

Another thing about those hated times is mother could not buy Dr. Spock's book on child raising and I could not hire an attorney to sue for separation, so we did with what we had and used the Holy Bible as a guide. That is very likely where the drug problem started.

As a child, I was drug to Sunday School, drug to Sunday evening service, and drug to Wednesday evening Bible study. And when we had revival meetings, my cruel mother drug me to church nightly.

I will always believe my life is forever marked by a childhood incident at the grocery store. I gave into temptation and stole a handful of candy only to have my sin revealed. I felt like a dope when mother drug me to the owner of the store, I acknowledged my wrongdoing and paid for my sin.

I cannot remember the entire episode, or the speech that followed, but it seems like she said something about values and respecting what other people owned. She said, "The Bible says, 'Thou shall not steal.' If you want things, learn to work for them. Don't steal from someone else." With that I was saddled with yet another lifetime burden: a work ethic.

I really should mention how my ego suffered irreparable damage by not having my way all the time. Numerous times I was drug to the woodshed for an attitude adjustment. The altering instrument was from a cottonwood tree in the backyard bereft of its lower limbs.

Actually, I really should not be reluctant to talk about such drug problems because they have spared me heartache throughout all of my adult life. They have shaped my values and given me a sense of responsibility. Instead of being desensitized, I have learned respect for others and myself. And though I am not so vain as to make a claim of moral perfection, I will always be grateful for the good influences of the drugs. Traces of them are still in my veins.
