“GIVE ME JESUS BUT NOT HIS CHURCH?” By Jonnie Hutchison

“Give me Jesus but not the church.” Sadly, this statement expresses the attitude far too many hold with reference to the New Testament church. Many misunderstand the place and purpose for the existence of the church. The Bible is clear that the church has always been in God’s plan for man’s salvation from sin. The church exists according to God’s “eternal purpose which He purposed in Christ Jesus” (Ephesians 3:10-11). Every saved person this side of the cross has been added by the Lord to His church (Acts 2:41, 47) which tells us that if one is not in the Lord’s church he or she is lost and without hope.

Jesus promised to build His church, not His churches. The church of Christ is unique and one of a kind. It is not a denomination nor a group of denominations. It stands alone as ONE BODY with ONE HEAD. Inspiration declares, “And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all (Ephesians 1:22-23).

How many bodies does Jesus have? Ephesians 4:4 reads, “There is ONE BODY ....” Since the one body is the church then the only logical conclusion is there is only ONE CHURCH built by Jesus and acceptable to God. If not, why not?

The church is the spiritual kingdom of Christ. Christ is “King of kings and Lord of lords” and reigns over the church from His throne in heaven (Acts 2:30; 1 Timothy 6:15). One who rejects the church rejects Jesus as his King and Lord. Paul wrote to the church in Colossae, “He has delivered us from the power of darkness and conveyed us into the kingdom of the Son of His love, in whom we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins.” No person outside of the kingdom (church) of Christ has received the forgiveness of sins.

The Bible teaches that salvation is “in Christ Jesus” (2 Tim. 2:10). Yet, to be in Christ is equivalent to being in His one body which is the church. How does one get into Christ? “For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ” (Galatians 3:27). Yet the Bible also teaches, “For by one Spirit we were all baptized into one body” (1 Corinthians 12:13). The same act of obedience that puts one into Christ puts him into the one body which is His one church.

The idea that one can accept Jesus but reject the church He built and to which He adds the saved stands in stark contrast to what the Bible teaches about the essentiality of the church that belongs to the Son of God. To reject the church of Christ is to reject any hope of salvation. May God help each of us to recognize the place and purpose of the church Jesus built in the lives of those who desire to enter into eternal life.

THE AVENUE OF PRAYER By Jonnie Hutchison

The God of heaven communicates to humankind through His written word in the Bible. The Christian communicates to God through the avenue of prayer. Does God desire for His children to pray to Him? Yes. The Bible tells us to “pray without ceasing, in everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you” (1 Thess. 5:17-18). Paul wrote to the Christians in Philippi, “Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God” (Philippians 4:6).

Does God hear and answer prayer? There are some restrictions. God does not hear, in the sense of answering, the prayers of sinners. “Now we know that God does not hear sinners; but if anyone is a worshiper of God and does His will, He hears him” (John 9:31). 1 Peter 3:12 reads, “For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, And His ears are open to their prayers; But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.” God does not answer prayers that are at odds with His revealed will. John writes, “Now this is the confidence that we have in Him, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us” (1 John 5:14). It should be obvious that God will not answer the prayers of one who is living in rebellion to His Word including embracing religious error.

God does answer the prayers of His faithful. After stating that one can have confidence that God hears our prayers, John continued, “And if we know that He hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of Him” (1 John 5:15). God answers our prayers, but He answers them according to His will. He may say “no” as in the case of Paul’s “thorn in the flesh” (2 Cor. 12:7ff). He may answer “wait.” The Psalmist writes, “Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him” (Psalms 37:7). The implication is that God is not governed by our impatience and that is true of prayer. Yes, God does hear and answer prayer and sometimes our prayers are answered quickly.

Some believe that sinners should pray to God for salvation. However, the Bible is silent on the so-called “sinner’s prayer.” Instead, God requires the sinner to believe in Jesus as the Son of God (John 8:32), repent of sin (Acts 17:30), confess faith in Christ (Rom. 10:9-10) and be baptized for the remission of sins (Acts 2:38). Neither Jesus nor the apostles ever told any person to
