POSITIVES OF A VIRUS By Jonnie Hutchison

The Covid-19 virus has had a tremendously negative impact upon millions of people across the world. It has impacted not only physical health but the economy of nations and has created much anxiety and fear. One may wonder is there anything positive that one can see in such a negative atmosphere. The fact is that there are some positives that should result from our present experience.

IT SHOULD HELP US TO SEE OUR DEPENDENCE UPON GOD. We need God all of the time but situations we experience that seem to be out of our control help us to realize just how much we depend upon Him. It is God who brought all things into existence and who upholds all things by the word of His power (Hebrews 1:4). It is God who is “able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we think or ask” (Ephesians 3:20). God is dependable for it is impossible for Him to lie and He will fulfill His promises (Hebrews 6:18; 2 Corinthians 1:20). During this or any other trying time, know that you can depend upon God for comfort, strength and guidance.

IT SHOULD GIVE US A GREATER APPRECIATION FOR THE BIBLE. No matter what the question, the Bible has an answer. It guides and directs us, not only in obtaining salvation, but in dealing with the trials of this life. God’s Word is “living and powerful” (Hebrews 4:12). It is a “lamp unto my feet and light unto my path” (Psa. 119:105). In a time of uncertainty it is a source of faith, hope and stability upon which you can depend (Romans 10:17; Psa. 119:81; Proverbs 20:5).

IT SHOULD CREATE WITHIN US A DEEPER APPRECIATION FOR THE ASSEMBLY AND THE IMPORTANCE OF WORSHIP. When faithful Christians are prevented from assembling together for worship it leaves an emptiness in our lives. Corporate worship not only allows us to express honor, reverence and appreciation to our God, but it lifts us up, strengthens our faith and allows us to experience the fellowship of God and one another. Along with the Psalmist we can say, “I was glad when they said to me,

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION

Question: What were those with leprosy required to do under the Old Testament Law?

Answer will be given in next week's bulletin.

"Let us go into the house of the Lord." (Psalms 122:1). Oh how we long for a return to the assembly of the saints!!

IT SHOULD HELP US TO REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE AND PLACE OF PRAYER IN OUR LIVES. Prayer is the first line of defense against feelings of hopelessness and anxiety. "Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus" (Philippians 4:6-7). Isn't that a great promise? In this trying time we can utilize the avenue of prayer and know that God will hear and answer according to His will. 1 Peter 3:12 reads, "For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, And His ears are open to their prayers...." And the book of 1 John assures us, "And whatever we ask we receive from Him, because we keep His commandments and do those things that are pleasing in His sight" (1 John 3:22). Pray for a quick resolution to this virus. Pray for those impacted by it. You can depend upon prayer in this time of uncertainty knowing that God is listening and will answer your prayer in accordance with His will.

Let each of us continue to trust in and serve our God. Remember this admonition and promise, found in Hebrews 13:5-6, "Let your conduct be without covetousness; be content with such things as you have. For He Himself has said, "I will never leave you nor forsake you." So we may boldly say: "The Lord is my helper; I will not fear. What can man do to me?"

WE DID NOT FORSAKE

Years ago, I began preaching in an area where cold weather brought heavy snow some years. The eldership told me they never closed the doors. They were always open for Bible Study and Worship. One Wednesday evening no one called to say otherwise, so I made my way alone to the church building (I thought it was too dangerous for my family and did not know if I could make it back home safely) with at least 8 inches of snow already on the roadway and snowing heavily, I finally arrived at the building, turned the lights on and turned up the heat. Service time arrived and no one came. I called one of the elders and he asked why I was there and told me to go home. No one forsook the assembly.

Growing up in a hurricane prone area, once in a while it was too dangerous to venture out.

My health this last year, in and out of the hospital has kept me several times from attending services, I never forsook. It was always hard to accept. Several times I have visited with the sick who wept because they no longer were able to attend. They did not forsake.

These are exceptional times, we must cooperate with those trying to keep us from danger.

Forsake: to abandon (someone or something) desert, leave, quit, leave behind, renounce, give up, relinquish.

—Pennington Bend church of Christ

OFF THE FACE OF THE EARTH

At the Fifth of Ephesians, Paul the apostle used the marital relationship of a man and his wife to illustrate the relationship of Christ to the Church. A husband is to love his wife as Christ loves the Church, and a wife is to be subject to her husband as the Church is to be subject to Christ. At the Third of Jeremiah, God also used marital terms to describe Israel's unfaithfulness to Him. The sins of the people were figuratively described as a commission of adultery, and the Lord's response to it was just as figuratively a bill of divorce with which He put them away. If the people embraced other gods, Jehovah warned that His jealousy would kindle unto anger, and He would destroy them from off the face of the earth.
