MISTAKES By Jonnie Hutchison

Did you make any mistakes this past week? When one looks at the various definitions of a mistake given in standard dictionaries he must accept that all of us make mistakes. One definition of a mistake is “an action or judgment that is misguided or wrong.” Another definition is “to misunderstand the meaning or intention of.” Still another definition of a mistake is “to make a wrong judgment of another’s character or ability.” A simple definition is “to be wrong.” By these definitions any one of us would be “mistaken” if we claimed never to have made a mistake!

Some mistakes result in mild consequences while the consequences of other mistakes are severe. I may make a mistake by turning down the wrong street while driving but that mistake may be easily corrected by finding the right street. On the other hand, failing to stop at a traffic light when it is red is a mistake that may cause an accident resulting in injury or death.

Some mistakes fall into the category of sin while others do not. One may make the mistake of failing to take an umbrella to protect him from the rain, but it is not sinful to get wet. Sin occurs when one violates the spiritual law of God (1 John 3:4), engages in unrighteous thoughts or actions (1 John 5:17) or fails to do the good he knows he must do (James 4:17). Adultery is a mistake but it is also a sin because it clearly is a violation of God’s law (Matthew 5:32; 19:9; Galatians 5:19-21). Make no mistake about it, “fornicators and adulterers, God will judge” (Hebrews 13:4).

Dear reader, the greatest mistake with the severest of consequences that you or anyone else may make is to reject God’s offer to forgive your sins through the blood of Jesus (Romans 5:8-9). The consequence of making this mistake is eternal separation from God in the fiery punishment of a devil’s hell. Don’t make the mistake of thinking you can escape the consequences of your sinful mistakes. “Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life” (Galatians 6:7-8).

BIBLE RESEARCH QUESTION

Last Week: What was the name of the king who married Esther?

Answer: King Ahasuerus of Persia. Most scholars agree he was the same person as Xerxes. (Esther 1:1-4).

God in His grace provides His Word, the Bible, to help us avoid the eternal consequences of our sinful mistakes.

Through obedience to what He has commanded for our salvation, we can receive forgiveness and the hope of eternal life (Hebrews 5:8-9; Titus 1:2; 2:11-12). Jesus said, “He who believes and is baptized shall be saved; he who does not believe shall be condemned” (Mark 16:16). Dear reader, have you received forgiveness for your sinful mistakes?

TWO MULES’ BURDENS OF FAITH By John Henson

The story of Naaman receiving a cure for leprosy has been well known in the brotherhood, having been taught by just about every preacher. Most of the time, however, one only hears part of the story and that is the command for Naaman to plunge seven times in the Jordan River. There’s more.

Naaman made another request after receiving his cure. He sought Elisha’s permission to take some earth back to Syria (2 Kings 5:17). Naaman wanted to worship the God who cured him when he returned to Syria. Because Naaman was steeped in idolatry, he didn’t believe that God could be worshiped except on his own land.

There was a little more to it as we learn from 2 Kings 5:18. While the king of Syria was kneeling before the Syrian god, Rimmon, Naaman would appear to be doing the same, but would really be worshiping the true God.

Naaman was doing two things wrong here. First, he was attempting to deceive the Syrian king. And, he was attempting to pay homage to God inside an idol temple. Naaman was guilty of trying to perpetuate a case of divided loyalty. He wanted to have his job as a leader in the Syrian army and his place beside the king. But, he also knew he wanted to worship the God who had cured his leprosy.

God can’t be divided this way. We can’t have the true God and put an idol next to him and worship both. Many people mistakenly think they can do this. They think they can worship God and money, but Jesus said that was not possible (Matthew 6:24). People also think they can worship God and recreation, God and material possessions, or God and just about anything else. Such, however, is not possible. We must devote ourselves fully, completely to God: heart, body, and soul, or we will be guilty of the same split devotion Naaman was.
