ISLAM AND AFGHANISTAN

By Jonnie Hutchison

The recent events in the country of Afghanistan have brought to our attention once again just how inherently evil is the religion of Islam. This man-made religion has been embraced by millions across the world and continues to grow in number. The militants in Islam have as their goal world-wide domination and are willing to use whatever means are necessary to reach their goal including the killing of civilians and innocent children. Their so-called “holy book” (the Quran) calls for the death of all who will not accept this false religion. Giving in to their demands facilitates their ultimate goal and will lead to many precious souls being lost eternally.

Note these verses (called surah’s) from the Quran: Surah 3:151: “We shall cast terror into the hearts of those who disbelieve ...” Surah 2:191: “And kill them wherever you find them ... kill them. Such is the recompense of the disbelievers Surah 9:5: “Then kill the disbelievers.” To the followers of Islam those called “disbelievers” are all persons who have not embraced the religion of Islam. According to the Quran, all non-Muslims must be killed wherever they are found.

Genuine New Testament Christianity is as different from the religion of Islam as light from darkness. Rather than calling for Christians to kill anyone who is not a Christian, the religion of Christ calls for us to preach the gospel so that souls can be saved from the eternal consequences of sin (Mark 16:15-16). Christians are to “live peaceably with all men” (Romans 12:18). Christians are to do good to all (Galatians 6:10) and Christians are to put bitterness, wrath, anger, clamor, evil speaking and all malice out of their lives, but rather Christians are to be tenderhearted and forgiving toward others (Ephesians 4:31-32). Christians must not kill the innocent else they will lose their hope of heaven (Gal. 5:19-21; Rev. 21:8).

How sad that so many people in our world are deceived by a false man-made religion that calls for the death of all who do not embrace it. A religion that murders fathers and mothers and their children with the sanction of their “holy book.”

It was not Mohammed who died for the sins of the world, but Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God (John 3:16; Romans

5:8-9). He died to provide every person in the world the opportunity to live forever with Him in heaven. May God help us to continue to teach and preach the gospel of Christ to a lost and dying world and to continue to pray for open doors into the Muslim world too take the good news of salvation to those whose minds have been blinded by the “god of this world.” (2 Corinthians 4:”3-4).

THE POWER TO FACE LIFE By Gary L. Hutchins

Paul’s letter to the Philippians he instructed them as to where to find the power to face life and deal with it successfully (Phlp. 4:11-13). The lesson within that text is equally important for us today.

Most everyone experiences periods of time when things seem to go pretty well. But in almost every case, sooner or later, things change! Life is always in motion. All sorts of forces effect our lives. Illness, injury, emotional stress, psychological disorders, financial problems, loss of a job, the death of a loved one and a host of other developments can, all of a sudden, turn our lives upside down. In addition to all the rest, simply getting older can also take its toll.

Many people turn to doctors, psychiatrists, psychologists and other types of counselors for guidance to cope with what life has thrown at them. Others try to escape through alcohol and the illicit use of drugs, which ultimately worsens their problems. But Paul enlightens us as to our greatest power to succeed, to cope, to effectively deal with the challenges of life. That power is found in a right relationship with God through Christ.

First, Paul states, “...for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content:” (vs. 11). We tend to think that if we could only lay our hands on more money we could solve most of our problems. But money, and the things money can buy, are not the source of real fulfillment, satisfaction or lasting happiness. Jesus said, “...one’s life does not consist in the abundance of the things he possesses” (Lk. 12:15). The Hebrews writer encourages us to “be content with such things as you have” and then reminds us that, as long as we don’t walk away from Him, God will never forsake us (Heb. 13:5-6). A mindset of contentment is key to dealing successfully with life’s challenges.

Second, Paul states that he knows how to live when things are going great and when things are not so great (vs. 12). Our life fluctuates continually as time passes. To deal with those constant changes we need to learn to keep our focus on the most important side of life- our spiritual life! Paul did not write on this matter from a theoretical perspective. He had a lot of first hand experience with the down side of life (1 Cor. 4:11-13; 2 Cor. 11:23-33). If we can keep in mind that this life, with all of its difficulties, is only temporary and our ultimate goal is eternal life in Heaven, then we can realize that the problems of this life are also only temporary.

Finally, Paul emphasizes that the power to face and deal with life successfully is not within ourselves (vs. 13). If we look only within, only to our own abilities, we will surely come up short. Our “sufficiency” to effectively face life is from God (2 Cor. 3:5).
